[Dkt. No. 5237] (the “Objection”). In support of its Response, the Responding Party states as follows:

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

At the inception of these cases, October 15, 2018, the Debtors maintained that it was “critical” to have vendor support in order to run their operations, conduct a sale of their assets, and confirm a plan of reorganization. Now that the assets have been sold and the professionals have been paid, the Debtors have changed their position. They are seeking to wipe out vendors, particularly foreign vendors, by reinterpreting the definition of “receipt” of goods. The critical issue for this Court to decide is whether receipt requires goods to be in the Debtors’ hands. From the outset of this case, the Responding Party has relied on the precedent established by the Third Circuit in Haining Wansheng Soa Co., Ltd v. World Imports Ltd., (In re World Imports), 862 F.3d 338 (3d Cir. 2017) (“World Imports”) which requires goods to be in the Debtors’ possession. If there had been any doubt about the precedent set by World Imports, the Debtors’ cases might have converted from Chapter 11 to Chapter 7 back in October 2018. For this reason alone, this Court should overrule the Objection.

DISCUSSION

The Responding Party’s Claims

1. Giza Spinning and Weaving Co. (“Giza”), a foreign manufacturer of women’s garments, manufactured in Egypt and delivered and sold these goods to Sears. On December 3, 2018, Giza properly filed claim number 5772 against Sears, Roebuck and Co. in the amount of $143,485.61 all of which is a 503(b)(9) administrative priority claim. The Proof of Claim is attached as Exhibit A.

2. All of the items shipped by the aforementioned claimants with respect to Section 503(b)(9) were received by Sears between September 25, 2018 and October 15, 2018.

3. The Debtors only objection to the claims is that under Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, the goods should be considered received as of the shipping date. As discussed in detail below, this interpretation of Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code is erroneous. The Debtors have provided no evidence to show that their calculations are correct.

World Imports

4. Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code states as follows:

“(b) After notice and a hearing, there shall be allowed administrative expenses, ... including (9) the value of any goods received by the debtors within 20 days before the date of commencement of a case under this title in which the goods have been sold in the ordinary course of such debtor’s business.”

5. The Bankruptcy Code does not define the meaning of “received.” As a result, courts are left to determine what “received” means in the context of section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code. This exact question was decided by the Third Circuit Court of Appeals in World Imports. The Third Circuit ruled that “received” requires physical possession of the goods, not when the goods were delivered freight on board to a common carrier. World Imports, 862 F.3d at 346.

6. The World Imports Court considered the ordinary meaning of “received.” The Court concluded “[t]he legal and dictionary definitions comport with the definition found in the UCC. World Imports, 862 F.3d at 342. Moreover, “we infer that Congress meant to adopt this ‘well-known’ meaning of the term.” Id. As this Court previously noted, courts commonly look to the UCC to define terms that are undefined in the Bankruptcy Code. See, In the Matter of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, Inc., Case No. 10-24549-rdd, Dkt. No. 4017, at 4-5 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 25, 2012)

7. The World Imports Court stated that Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code is explicitly linked to Section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code as the former is an exemption from the latter's requirements. Id. at 543. "Because § 503(b)(9) provides 'an alternative remedy to reclamation,' In re Momenta, Inc. 455 B.R. 353, 357 (Bankr. D.N.H. 2011), it should be read and interpreted consistent with § 546(c)." Id.

8. The World Imports Court engaged in a thorough analysis of the definition of "receipt" as used in Section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Court relied in part on In re Marin Motor Oil, Inc. 740 F.2d 220 (3d Cir. 1984). In Marin Motor Oil, the Third Circuit concluded "...that because 'Congress essentially borrowed [the reclamation provision] from the U.C.C.,' it 'also borrowed the standard definition of receipt' [Marin Motor Oil] at 225 n.9." World Imports 862 F.3d at 343. As a result, the Marin Motor Oil court concluded that the UCC definition of "receipt" applied, and, therefore, meant physical possession. Id. See also, In re R.F. Cunningham & Co., Inc., 2006 Bankr. Lexis 3650 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. Dec. 21, 2006); In re Flagstaff Foodservice Corp., 56 B.R. 910 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986)

9. As a result of the Third Circuit's analysis of the relationship between 503(b)(9) and 546(c), and the definition of "receipt" in 546(c) meaning taking possession, it held that the definition of "received" in 503(b)(9) means the same thing. Id. at 543-544; See, In re Circuit City Stores, Inc., 432 B.R. 225, 229 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2010) ("As 'receipt' in Article 2 of the UCC and § 546(c) is defined as taking 'physical possession,' the Court holds that 'received' for the purposes of § 503(b)(9) means having taken into physical possession"); In re Momenta, Inc., 455 B.R. 353, 358 (Bankr. D.N.H. 2012) ("...the terms 'receipt' and 'received' are similar words, concern related issues, and should be treated as functional equivalents and interpreted identically.")

10. The World Imports Court next discussed why placing goods on a ship or with a third party carrier, also known as freight on board (“FOB”) does not constitute constructive receipt. Under applicable case law, common carriers are not considered agents of a buyer. Id. at 344. Moreover, transfer of title and receipt have been held to be distinct. Id. See, In re R.F. Cunningham & Co., 2006 Bankr. LEXIS 3650, *6 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. December 21, 2006) (“Delivery to a common carrier does not constitute ‘receipt’ by a buyer of goods.”)

11. Subsequent to the ruling of the Third Circuit, World Imports has been cited favorably, including by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Connecticut. That court held that under 503(b)(9) received is “...either: (i) physical possession of the goods by the debtor; or (ii) constructive possession, when a bailee or an agent of the debtor physically possesses the goods.” In re O.W. Bunker Holding North America Inc., 2019 Bankr. LEXIS 2728 (Bankr D.Conn. Aug. 26, 2019) at *25. Either way, physical possession either by the debtor or its agent is required.

Debtors’ Attempts to Distinguish World Imports Are Not Persuasive

12. The Debtors attempt to dismiss the Third Circuit’s reasoning in World Imports by stating that the Circuit incorrectly looked for authority under state law as opposed to federal law. While federal law might be preferred for interpreting other federal laws such as the Bankruptcy Code, this is not mandatory. The main case cited by the Debtors to suggest the Third Circuit incorrectly looked to the UCC, which is state law, to interpret the meaning of “received” is In re Escalera Res. Co., 563 B.R. 336 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2017) (“Escalera”). It is somewhat ironic that the court in Escalera used the dictionary definition of goods found in the UCC to reach a decision because there was no governing federal law. While courts are not required to consider state law in interpreting statutes, they certainly may, and as with the court in

Escalera, often do consider state law.

13. The Debtors go to convoluted lengths in an effort to interpret Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code. They attempt to use the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (“CISG”) and the International Commerce Commissions’ (“Intercoms”) neither of which defines “received.” In order to use the CISG and Intercoms, terms that don’t mean “received” have to be massaged to create the meaning desired by the Debtors. Rather than employing this approach, the Third Circuit searched for the actual definition of “received” using basic tenets of statutory interpretation. See, Custom Polymers PET, LLC v. Gamma Meccanica SPA, No. 6:15-04882-MGL, 185 F. Supp. 3d 741, 755 (D.S.C. 2016) (“Even though the CISG governs [a] dispute, where the CISG is silent on a legal issue, a court should apply the choice of law rules of the forum where it sits to fill the gap.”) As discussed above, the World Imports court chose the commonly understood definition of “received.”

14. The only legal authority cited by the Debtors to support their interpretation of “receipt” are the lower court decisions in World Imports which were overturned. The Debtors’ brief strangely references the bankruptcy court decision in World Imports as an “analogous case concerning claims of an import vendor that shipped goods to a debtor FOB port of origin” as if it was just another bankruptcy case looking at the issue rather than the very case the Third Circuit overturned.

15. Additionally, the Third Circuit specifically points out that courts have consistently held that receipt does not occur when goods are loaded on to a common carrier. The fact that risk of loss and title may have transferred is irrelevant. Marin Motor Oil at 225; See also, In re R.F. Cunningham & Co. at *6.

16. The second reason asserted by the Debtors to dismiss the Third Circuit's reasoning in World Imports is that the court looked to the meaning of "received" in section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code when determining the meaning of "received" in section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code. As discussed above, the Third Circuit in World Imports extensively discussed the connection between these two code sections. Most importantly, both sections use the word "received." The Debtors would have this Court believe that because the derivation of Section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code may have been the UCC, which is adopted by state law, while the right given in Section 503(b)(9) of Bankruptcy Code is a federally created right, there should be a distinction between the two definitions of the same word. However, this interpretation makes no sense.

17. The simplest and most logical interpretation is to read the word "received" the same way in both sections. This makes even more sense when one considers that Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code is specifically mentioned in Section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. What makes no sense is that Congress would distinguish the definition of "received" among two sections of the same Bankruptcy Code any more than Congress would discriminate between the words potato and po-ta-toe.

18. The third reason the Debtors provide for this Court to disregard the Third Circuit's World Imports ruling is that the court did not consider the policy considerations raised by the Debtors. As discussed below, this argument does not necessitate abandoning the plain meaning of "received."

19. Finally, the Debtors assert that "Congress did not legislate exclusively against the backdrop of domestic vendor sales and the UCC when it enacted section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act in 2005." There is no dispositive answer to this question. The fact that Congress did not legislate exclusively against a backdrop of domestic vendor sales provides no justification to treat the same word in related code sections differently. There is absolutely no basis to use the Debtors' interpretive meaning of "received" instead of the plain meaning.

Debtors Additional Arguments are Not Persuasive

20. The Debtors sole legal argument in favor of using the overturned, lower court World Imports cases is that the CISG and Intercoms should be used to determine what "received" means. The rationale behind this is that international trade agreements are ratified by Congress and, therefore, federal law.

21. The problem, as discussed above, is that neither the CISG nor the Intercoms define "received." Thus, the Debtors are forced to shoehorn a meaning of "received" rather than use its commonly understood meaning. This allows the Debtors to argue that the date the goods were delivered to a common carrier should constitute receipt.<sup>2</sup> As discussed in detail above, however, courts consistently defined "deliver" and "receipt" as distinct and common carriers are not considered agents of the buyer.

22. Left with no legal argument, the Debtors look to policy. The problem is that there will be always be winners and losers. The Debtors argument does not create conformity, but rather at this late stage in these cases, allows the Debtors professionals to decide who are the winners and losers. The reality is that if the actual receipt date is not used in Section 503(b)(9) determinations, every time you have a company in the zone of insolvency, foreign

<sup>2</sup> Under Article 71 of the CISG allows that a vendor may prevent handing over of goods if it becomes apparent while the goods are in transit that the other party may not be able to perform its obligations. The Debtors have themselves acknowledged this fact in the Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Authority to (I) Pay Prepetition Claims of (A) Shippers, Warehousemen, and Other Non-Merchandise Lien Claimants and (B) Holders of PACA/PASA Claims, and (II) Confirm Administrative Expense Priority for Prepetition Orders Delivered to the Debtors Postpetition, and Satisfy Such Obligations in the Ordinary Course of Business [Dkt. No. 14 at Par. 19-20] vendors will be encouraged to pull back their goods until they are 100% assured of payment. This will result in persistent interruption of delivery of goods. In the instant case, Giza relied on the Debtors assertions at the outset of the cases that they would be paid in full for goods received between September 25 and October 15, 2018. Moreover, if Congress had intended that the shipping date be used for purposes of Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, then the statute would have said “delivered to” or “shipped to” rather than “received by.” The fact is that until the goods are firmly in a debtor’s hands, they cannot sell them. If the debtors have no goods to sell, they are out of business. For this reason, as well, there is no reason for the Court to look to anything other than the plain meaning of the word “received” which for the purposes of commerce implies that a company has a product to sell.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons the Responding Parties request that the Court rule that (i) the Debtors have not properly objected to the Responding Parties’ claims, (ii) that the term “received” as used in section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code should mean physical possession by the Debtor and (iii) that Debtors objection to claim number 5772 of Giza Spinning and Weaving Co. is denied and (iv) such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate.

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Modified Form 410

Instructions for Proof of Claim

United States Bankruptcy Court

12/15

These instructions and definitions generally explain the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that debtors do not file voluntarily, exceptions to these general rules may apply. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the bankruptcy process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date the case was filed.
- Fill in the caption at the top of the form.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- Attach any supporting documents to this form.
Attach redacted copies of any documents that show that the debt exists, a lien secures the debt, or both. (See the definition of redaction on the next page.)

Also attach redacted copies of any documents that show perfection of any security interest or any assignments or transfers of the debt. In addition to the documents, a summary may be added. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (called “Bankruptcy Rule”) 3001(c) and (d).
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, do not disclose confidential health care information. Leave out or redact confidential information both in the claim and in the attached documents.

- A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, individual’s tax identification number, or financial account number, and only the year of any person’s date of birth. See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child’s initials and the full name and address of the child’s parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent, 123 Main St., City, State). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent’s website at <http://restructuring.primeclerk.com/sears>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate.
11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor’s right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy.
11 U.S.C. § 101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Claim Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §503(b)(9): A claim arising from the value of any goods received by the Debtor within 20 days before the date of commencement of the above case, in which the goods have been sold to the Debtor in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business. Attach documentation supporting such claim.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. §506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
